Donor Gift Agreement Between
UR Pride Centre
and
The University of Regina

The following agreement outlines the specific details of a gift (hereinafter referred to as “the Donation”) from UR Pride Centre (hereinafter referred to as “the Donor”) in support of the University of Regina (hereinafter referred to as “the University”).

Purpose of the Donation
The Donor has provided a gift of $5,000.00 to create the UR Pride Centre Bursary for an undergraduate student in any faculty at the University.

Donation Amount and Timing
The Donor has committed to a pledge of $5,000.00 payable over five years in five installments of $1,000.00 beginning January 2018 and ending January 2022.

The University will provide a pledge reminder annually.

Bursary Criteria
Commencing in the Fall of 2018, the University will present one award of $1,000.00 each fall until 2022, to an undergraduate student in accordance with the following criteria:

- Enrolled in any area of study;
- Achieved academic good standing;
- Continuing from their second year of study;
- Self-declared 2LGBTQ+;
- Provides a statement about their own experience as a 2LGBTQ+ student; and
- Demonstrates financial need.

Recognition
With the consent of the Donor the University will recognize the donation through:

- The naming of the award as the UR Pride Centre Bursary;
- Promotion of the award on the University’s website;
- Donor name listed in the University’s Annual Report to Donors;
- Permanent recognition on the University’s donor wall. The name will be recognized as UR Pride Centre.
Confidentiality
The University is subject to The Local Authority Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (Saskatchewan) (the “Act”). The University respects the privacy of its donors and agrees to protect the Donor’s personal information in accordance with the Act. The information provided by the Donor will be used to keep the Donor informed about the University’s services, special events, fundraising programs, and other activities through periodic contact.

Permission to Alter
In keeping with the award management policies of the University, the University may be required to alter the established provisions to ensure relevancy against current priorities in student recruitment and retention. Should this become necessary, the University will ensure that the Donor’s intent is honored by adhering as closely as possible to this gift agreement. The support provided by the Donation will continue to be clearly identified with the name of the Donor.

Authorization
This document is the agreement among the parties with respect to this donation.
