Non-Student Funding Application

Eligibility:
In order to apply for this funding pot, you must:

- Be an individual who is not a student at the University of Regina or any federated colleges or be an organization based in Regina, SK or surrounding areas;
- Be a member of UR Pride;
- Be applying for a project that supports sexually or gender diverse communities in Regina, particularly students, faculty, staff or alumni of the University of Regina.

Questions about eligibility can be directed to executive.director@urpride.ca. Thank you!

To apply:

Submit a completed application electronically to executive.director@urpride.ca. No hard copies please!

A representative of UR Pride will be in touch to notify you that your application has been received and whether any additional documents are required.

Our Policy and Finance committee will review your application, and make recommendations for funding to the Executive Director. A decision should be made within 2 weeks, but we will be in touch if there are circumstances that delay this process.
